

Title: Finisher and Final Assembly Technician

Reports to: Supervisor

Company Profile:

DynaWinch Industries is an Original Equipment Manufacture of oilfield service equipment, specializing in the Wireline Service Industry. Located in Calgary, our modern 42,000 sq ft manufacturing facility allows us to service both domestic and international clients.

Position Summary:

The Finisher and Final Assembly Technician is part of the Manufacturing Department team and the work involves final detail assembly of Wireline Van bodies and Cabs. This position reports to the departments lead hand and / or the Vice President of Operations.

Position Responsibilities:

General Duties

- Final Assembly or installation of accessories including but not limited to:
  - Windows and window trim
  - Compartment doors, hinges, door handles, holdbacks, bumpers, locks and associated hardware
  - Installation of standard accessories such as vents and drawers
  - Touch up, highlight, or correct fabrication flaws including rough edges, paint scratches, gouges, dents, etc.
- Final Finishing of Vans and Cabs
  - Install flooring and ceiling panels
  - Install laminate, solid or acrylic counter tops
  - Installation of floor and ceiling trim where applicable
  - Cutting wood panels for various areas including bench and back rest
  - Application of caulking and weather sealant to all appropriate areas
- Contribute to team effort by accomplishing related results on other assigned tasks

Safety / Quality / Administration

- Must comply with all DynaWinch Policies and Procedures
- Maintain clean safe work area and follows company safety policies / procedures
- Uses, cares for, and maintains personal safety equipment.
- Conducts regular maintenance on assigned equipment, and strictly adheres to maintenance requirements.
- Accountable for submitting accident and incident reports, responding to any health and safety concerns

Finisher and Final Assembly Technician

---

- Completes service reports and documents as required for any service repair or warranty job repairs
- Participates in the upkeep and maintenance of the Quality Control System, assists in the inspection and review of all related work.
- Discusses and obtains approval of any design changes with engineering before proceeding with the implementation of those changes.

Position Skills Requirements:

- General handyman experience
- Owns a variety of hand and power tools for working with wood and metal.
- Mechanical assembler, metal working, or repair experience an asset
- Safely operate woodworking and metal tools, including table saw, miter saw, skill saw, router, drill press, band saw, jig saw, grinder, buffer, and various fasteners.
- Good organization and job planning skills
- Able to communicate and work within a team environment
- Able to work in a fast paced manufacturing environment
- Previous experience in mobile bodybuilding equipment assembly is considered an asset

DynaWinch offers competitive salary and benefits package, tool allowance, safety allowance, annual bonus and performance bonuses.

If you are interested in joining a progressive company that will give you room for growth, please submit your resume via e-mail or fax to the address listed below.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those selected for interviews will be contacted.